

MONARCH'S

SUPPORT SERVICES FOR BEYOND ACADEMICS AT UNCG

MONARCH offers an array of support services for students enrolled at The University of North Carolina at Greensboro (UNCG). Candidates for the Integrative Community Studies (ICS) program are offered personalized support services for an optimal *experience.

Individually designed supports for students with intellectual and developmental disabilities advance their capabilities for living independently, and students are supported each academic year through plans that can include:

- Community Living: teaching and assisting with daily living skills, community participation, interpersonal skills, personal health, wellness, and safety
- Student-life: navigating campus life, linking to campus activities, and developing life profiles
- Employment: pre-job training, coaching while on the job, and determining a career path
- Post-Graduation: continued guidance for life transitions related to community living, employment, and self-determination

Monarch staff are available on the university campus at 1111 Spring Garden St., 3607 MHRA Building, Greensboro, N.C. 27412.

If you or someone you know could benefit from Monarch's support services at The University of North Carolina at Greensboro, please call (866) 272-7826 or visit www.monarchnc.org/beyondacademics. For more details about enrolling in Integrative Community Studies, please contact university personnel at (336) 334-3905 or visit <https://beyondacademics.uncg.edu>.

Tuition and fees for academic programs paid to UNCG does not include Monarch's support services.*

Support services can be funded by the NC Innovations waiver, state funds, or private pay.*

Established in 1958, Monarch provides support statewide to thousands of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities, mental illness and substance use disorders. The agency is nationally accredited by The Council on Quality and Leadership (CQL) and certified by The N.C. Department of Health and Human Services as a Critical Access Behavioral Health Agency (CABHA). Monarch operates The Arc of Stanly County, which is a chapter of The Arc of North Carolina and The Arc of the United States.
