In April, participants from Monarch’s Forsyth Industrial Systems (FIS) attended the campaign party for the “Krispy Kreme Drive for 45.” Krispy Kreme teamed up with former NASCAR driver Kyle Petty to support Victory Junction Camp, which provides a safe and fun environment for chronically and seriously ill children. Founded by Kyle and Pattie Petty, the camp honors their son Adam Petty, former NASCAR #45 driver who lost his life during a tragic racing accident.

FIS members attended the event to show their support for their community. The group posed with NASCAR legends Kyle Petty (center) and his dad Richard Petty (far right).
